AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Acer incorporates by reference the denials and admissions set forth above and assert the following affirmative defenses. Acer does not intend to assume the burden of proof with respect to those matters as to which Plaintiff bears the burden. This statement of defenses is based on Acer's investigation to date, and Acer reserves the right to supplement, amend, or withdraw its defenses during the course of litigation as new information is learned.

First Affirmative Defense

The amended complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Second Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, (i) by the Convention and Protocol between the United States and Denmark for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with Respect to Taxes on Income, (ii) the Revenue Rule, and/or (iii) the Penal Law Rule.

Third Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because at all relevant times Acer acted in good faith and without intent to defraud and did not make any material misstatements or omissions and because Acer did not commit any act that constituted substantial assistance to any fraud.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the Linden Plan was entitled to the withholding tax refunds at issue.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitations.

Sixth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Acer never authorized the pursuit or filing of any fraudulent refund claims.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Acer did not receive the amounts Plaintiff alleges it paid out in withholding tax refunds.

Eighth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of unclean hands, waiver, laches, and/or estoppel.

Ninth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, due to the failure to join necessary or indispensable parties.

Tenth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the Court does not have jurisdiction over SKAT's claims as SKAT lacks standing under Article III of the U.S. Constitution.

Eleventh Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because SKAT does not have authority to pursue its claims.

Twelfth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because SKAT failed to exhaust administrative remedies and other legal remedies available to it and because the issues presented in this action are the subject of a collateral proceeding in Denmark.

Thirteenth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred or limited because if SKAT is awarded any damages or restitution, they are, in whole or in part, the result of Plaintiff's own culpable conduct, including but not limited to contributory negligence and assumption of the risk, and/or the negligent, wrongful, or unauthorized acts of Plaintiff or others, for which Acer is not liable.

Fourteenth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred or limited because if SKAT is awarded any damages or restitution, they are, in whole or in part, the result of ED&F's conduct, and ED&F should be liable to SKAT.

Fifteenth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred or limited because any harm to SKAT was caused by the actions of third parties over whom Acer had no control, and Acer intends to apportion fault to such third parties.

Sixteenth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred because of collateral estoppel and or res judicata.

Seventeenth Affirmative Defense

SKAT's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because they raise non-justiciable political questions.
